

Updated: Blue Cross continues to pay claims during our union represented employee work stoppage at Blue Cross

We updated this alert to clarify that this information only pertains to the union work stoppage at Blue Cross and our provider enrollment phone line remains open.

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan is experiencing a work stoppage with our UAW-represented workforce. While we work to reach an agreement, here are some things you should know.

- Blue Care Network is not affected — This work stoppage does not affect Blue Care Network commercial or BCN Advantage<sup>SM</sup>. You can continue to contact BCN in the same manner as always.
- Claims — Continue to submit Blue Cross claims as normal. We will process and pay claims throughout the work stoppage. All of our benefits and billing requirements remain the same.
- Prior authorization requests — Submit prior authorization requests as you do today. We'll continue to process all requests within standard time frames.
- Check eligibility and benefits — Continue to check member eligibility and benefits through our provider portal (availlity.com*), which can be accessed 24/7.
- Telephone inquiry — The Blue Cross Provider Inquiry phone lines are available during the work stoppage but may have longer than normal wait times. Providers are encouraged to use the provider portal (availlity.com*). The behavioral health phone lines remain open.
- Enrollment and change requests — Provider enrollment and demographic change requests can be submitted. The provider enrollment phone line remains available during the work stoppage. As a reminder, you can visit bcbsm.com/providers to review our enrollment and credentialing requirements. Group administrators can continue to log into our provider portal (availlity.com*) to access our Provider Enrollment and Change Self Service application to submit requests or check the status of requests that are in process. Please remember to wait at least 30 business days before checking on your individual enrollment or change request.
